

On Stage

Alfred Abel
 Concertmaster
 Lafayette Symphony Orchestra

Thursday, March 29th at 4:00 p.m.
 Free Admission
 Henderson Fine Arts Center

Sponsored by HFAC Guild

Alfred Abel has been Concertmaster of the Lafayette Symphony Orchestra since 1986. He is Associate Principal Second Violin of the Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra, a chair he has occupied for 22 years. Alfred teaches violin and viola at Wabash College and is conductor of the Wabash College Chamber Orchestra. He co-founded and conducted the Wabash College Symphony until last year.

He also teaches at Wesleyan College, where he

On Stage

Dr. Diane Earle

Sunday, October 20th
 4:00 p.m.
 McCormick Hall Stage

Everyone is invited to this free concert!

So you say you don't like new music?
 We'll change your mind...

Join oboist Michele Fiala and pianist Donald Speer for an afternoon of audience-friendly new compositions influenced by jazz, world music, and natural sounds. The composers include Bill Douglas, Rodney Rogers and Paul Reade, along with one old favorite, Camille Saint-Saëns.

Fiala & Speer

Sunday, February 24
 3:00 p.m.

Fine Arts Center
 2660 South Green St.

Free Admission, Java Shakes & Door Prizes
 Sponsored by the HFAC Guild

Henderson Fine Arts Center Presents

On Stage

THE SPOKEN
 WORD

Sunday, November 7
 3:00 p.m.
 Free Admission
 Henderson Fine Arts Center

Original short stories and poetry
 Presented by
 Professors Sharon Burton,
 William Gary and
 Steve McCarty

Sponsored by Henderson Fine Arts Center Guild

